

Leichhardt Out of School Hours Care Incorporated

CONSTITUTION

Part 1 – Preliminary

1. Name of association

The name of the association is Leichhardt Out of School Hours Care Incorporated (Association).

2. Definitions and Interpretation

2.1 In this constitution:

'Constitution' means this Constitution of the Association;

'Director-General' means the Director-General of the Department of Services, Technology and Administration.

'Objects' means the objects in clause 3;

'ordinary committee member' means a member of the committee who is not an office-bearer of the association.

'secretary' means:

- (a) the person holding office under this constitution as secretary of the association, or
- (b) if no such person holds that office-the public officer of the association.

'Service Director' means the person employed by the Association as the centre director/co-ordinator;

'the Act' means the Associations Incorporation Act 2009.

'the Regulation' means the Associations Incorporation Regulation 2010.

'special general meeting' means a general meeting of the association other than an annual general meeting.

2.2 In this constitution:

- (a) a reference to a function includes a reference to a power, authority and duty;
- (b) a reference to the exercise of a function includes, if the function is a duty, a reference to the performance of the duty;
- (c) words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa;
- (d) words importing any gender include the other genders;
- (e) references to a person include the legal personal representatives, successors and permitted assigns of that person;
- (f) a reference to a statute, ordinance, code or other law includes Regulations and other statutory instruments under it and consolidations, amendments, re-enactments or replacements of any of them (whether of the same or any legislative authority having jurisdiction); and

- (g) a reference to "writing" shall unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as including references to printing, lithography, photography and other modes of representing or reproducing words in a visible form, including messages sent by electronic mail.

2.3 Except where the contrary intention appears, in this Constitution, an expression that deals with a matter under the Act has the same meaning as that provision of the Act. Model rules under the Act are expressly displaced by this Constitution.

3. Objects

The Objects of the Association are:

- (a) to provide an out of school hours child minding service;
- (b) to conduct, promote, advance and administer an out of school hours child minding service which extends the play, creative and community engagement opportunities for children in our local community in their leisure time;
- (c) to act, at all times, on behalf of and in the interest of the members;
- (d) to collaborate with the local community and other agencies to address the varying needs and issues of the children and their families who attend the service, including children with a disability, children of different cultural, social, linguistic and economic backgrounds and those in isolated circumstances, all within a framework of social justices and reconciliation with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities.
- (e) to raise, obtain and receive funds or other aid for the running of the service and employment of qualified staff and provision of materials for childrens' activities;
- (f) to apply capital, income and property of the Association towards its objectives;
- (g) to hold all land, money, securities and other property, real and personal, belonging to the Association;
- (h) to invest any monies of the Association and hold such investments;
- (i) to affiliate with such other bodies as have similar objectives;
- (j) undertake and or do all such things or activities which are lawful and necessary, incidental or conducive to the achievement of the Objects.

Part 2 - Membership

4. Membership generally

A person is eligible to be a member of the Association if:

- (a) the person is a natural person, and

- (b) the person is a parent or legal guardian of a child attending a school in the Municipality of Leichhardt, and
- (c) the person has applied for and been approved for membership of the Association in accordance with clause 5.

5. Application for membership

5.1 An application for membership of the Association:

- (a) must be made in writing in the form approved by the committee; and
- (b) must be lodged with the secretary of the Association at its principal place of operation.

5.2 As soon as practicable after receiving an application for membership, the secretary must refer the application to the committee which is to determine whether to approve or to reject the nomination.

5.3 As soon as practicable after the committee makes that determination, the secretary must:

- (a) notify the applicant, in writing, that the committee approved or rejected the application for membership (whichever is applicable), and
- (b) if the committee approved the application for membership, request the applicant to pay (within the period of 28 days after receipt by the applicant of the notification) the sum payable under this Constitution by a member as entrance fee and annual subscription.

5.4 The secretary must, on payment by the applicant of the amounts referred to in subclause 5.3 (b) within the period referred to in that provision, enter or cause to be entered the applicant's name in the register of members and, on the name being so entered, the applicant becomes a member of the Association.

6. Cessation of membership

A person ceases to be a member of the Association if the person:

- (a) dies, or
- (b) resigns membership, or
- (c) is expelled from the Association, or
- (d) fails to pay the annual membership fee under clause 10.2 within 3 months after the fee is due.

7. Membership entitlements not transferable

A right, privilege or obligation which a person has by reason of being a member of the Association:

- (a) is not capable of being transferred or transmitted to another person, and
- (b) terminates on cessation of the person's membership.

8. Resignation of membership

- 8.1 A member of the Association may resign from membership of the Association by first giving to the secretary written notice of at least one month (or such other period as the committee may determine) of the member's intention to resign and, on the expiration of the period of notice, the member ceases to be a member.
- 8.2 If a member of the Association ceases to be a member under subclause 8.1, and in every other case where a member ceases to hold membership, the secretary must make an appropriate entry in the register of members recording the date on which the member ceased to be a member.

9. Register of members

- 9.1 The public officer of the Association must establish and maintain a register of members of the Association specifying the name and postal or residential address of each person who is a member of the Association together with the date on which the person became a member.
- 9.2 The register of members must be kept in New South Wales:
- (a) at the main premises of the Association, or
 - (b) if the Association has no premises, at the Association's official address.
- 9.3 The register of members must be open for inspection, free of charge, by any member of the Association at any reasonable hour.
- 9.4 A member of the Association may obtain a copy of any part of the register on payment of a fee of not more than $1 for each page copied.
- 9.5 If a member requests that any information contained on the register about the member (other than the member's name) not be available for inspection, that information must not be made available for inspection.
- 9.6 A member must not use information about a person obtained from the register to contact or send material to the person, other than for:
- (a) the purposes of sending the person a newsletter, a notice in respect of a meeting or other event relating to the Association or other material relating to the association, or
 - (b) any other purpose necessary to comply with a requirement of the Actor the Regulation.

10. Fees and subscriptions

- 10.1 A member of the Association must, on admission to membership, pay to the Association an amount determined by the committee.

10.2 In addition to any amount payable by the member under subclause 10.1, a member of the Association must pay to the Association:

- (a) an annual membership fee determined by the committee, which shall accompany the annual re-enrolment of their child/children into the service; and
- (b) other fees as determined by the committee.

11. Members' liabilities

The liability of a member of the Association to contribute towards the payment of the debts and liabilities of the Association or the costs, charges and expenses of the winding up of the Association is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid by the member in respect of membership of the Association as required by clause 10.

12. Resolution of disputes

12.1 A dispute between a member and another member (in their capacity as members) of the Association, or a dispute between a member or members and the Association, are to be referred to a community justice centre for mediation under the Community Justice Centres Act 1983.

12.2 If a dispute is not resolved by mediation within 3 months of the referral to a community justice centre, the dispute is to be referred to arbitration.

12.3 The Commercial Arbitration Act 1984 applies to any such dispute referred to arbitration.

13. Disciplining of members

13.1 A complaint may be made to the committee by any person that a member of the Association:

- (a) has refused or neglected to comply with a provision or provisions of this Constitution, or
- (b) has wilfully acted in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the Association.

13.2 The committee may refuse to deal with a complaint if it considers the complaint to be trivial or vexatious in nature.

13.3 If the committee decides to deal with the complaint, the committee:

- (a) must cause notice of the complaint to be served on the member concerned, and
- (b) must give the member at least 14 days from the time the notice is served within which to make submissions to the committee in connection with the complaint, and
- (c) must take into consideration any submissions made by the member in connection with the complaint.

13.4 The committee may, by resolution, expel the member from the Association or suspend the member from membership of the association if, after considering the complaint and any submissions made in connection with the complaint, it is satisfied that the facts alleged in the complaint have been proved and the expulsion or suspension is warranted in the circumstances.

13.5 If the committee expels or suspends a member, the secretary must, within 7 days after the action is taken, cause written notice to be given to the member of the action taken, of the reasons given by the committee for having taken that action and of the member's right of appeal under clause 14.

13.6 The expulsion or suspension does not take effect:

- (a) until the expiration of the period within which the member is entitled to appeal against the resolution concerned, or
- (b) if within that period the member exercises the right of appeal, unless and until the Association confirms the resolution under clause 14, whichever is the later.

14. Right of appeal of disciplined member

14.1 A member may appeal to the Association in general meeting against a resolution of the committee under clause 13, within 7 days after notice of the resolution is served on the member, by lodging with the secretary a notice to that effect.

14.2 The notice may, but need not, be accompanied by a statement of the grounds on which the member intends to rely for the purposes of the appeal.

14.3 On receipt of a notice from a member under subclause 14.1, the secretary must notify the committee which is to convene a general meeting of the Association to be held within 28 days after the date on which the secretary received the notice.

14.4 At a general meeting of the Association convened under subclause 14.3:

- (a) no business other than the question of the appeal is to be transacted, and
- (b) the committee and the member must be given the opportunity to state their respective cases orally or in writing, or both, and
- (c) the members present are to vote by secret ballot on the question of whether the resolution should be confirmed or revoked.

14.5 The appeal is to be determined by a simple majority of votes cast by members of the Association.

Part 3 - The committee

15. Powers of the committee

Subject to the Act, the Regulation and this Constitution and to any resolution passed by the Association in general meeting, the committee:

- (a) is to control and manage the affairs of the Association, and

- (b) may exercise all such functions as may be exercised by the Association, other than those functions that are required by this Constitution to be exercised by a general meeting of members of the Association, and
- (c) has power to perform all such acts and do all such things as appear to the committee to be necessary or desirable for the proper management of the affairs of the Association.

16 Composition and membership of committee

16.1 The committee is to consist of:

- (a) the office-bearers of the Association,
- (b) at least 3 ordinary members, each of whom is to be elected at the annual general meeting of the Association under clause 17, and
- (c) the Service Director.

16.2 The total number of committee members is to be 17.

16.3 The office-bearers of the Association are as follows:

- (a) the president,
- (b) the vice-president,
- (c) the treasurer,
- (d) the secretary.

16.4 A committee member may hold up to 2 offices (other than both the president and vice-president offices).

16.5 Each member of the committee is, subject to this Constitution, to hold office until the conclusion of the annual general meeting following the date of the member's election, but is eligible for re-election.

17. Election of committee members

17.1 Nominations of candidates for election as ordinary committee members:

- (a) must be made in writing, signed by 2 members of the Association and accompanied by the written consent of the candidate (which may be endorsed on the form of the nomination), and
- (b) must be delivered to the secretary of the Association at least 7 days before the date fixed for the holding of the annual general meeting at which the election is to take place.

17.2 If insufficient nominations are received to fill all vacancies on the committee, the candidates nominated are taken to be elected and further nominations are to be received at the annual general meeting.

17.3 If insufficient further nominations are received, any vacant positions remaining on the committee are taken to be casual vacancies.

17.4 If the number of nominations received is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the persons nominated are taken to be elected.

- 17.5 If the number of nominations received exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled, a ballot is to be held.
- 17.6 The ballot for the election of ordinary committee members of the committee is to be conducted at the annual general meeting in such usual and proper manner as the committee may direct.
- 17.7 A person nominated as a candidate for election as an ordinary committee member of the Association must be a member of the Association

18. Election of office bearers

- 18.1 The members of the committee must, at the first committee meeting after they assume office as members of the committee, appoint the president, the vice-president, the treasurer and the secretary.
- 18.2 If more than one nomination for an office bearer position is received, a ballot is to be held.
- 18.3 The ballot for the election of an office bearer shall be conducted at the first committee meeting in such usual and proper manner as the committee may direct.
- 18.4 A person nominated as a candidate for election as an office-bearer must be a member of the Association

19 Secretary

- 19.1 The secretary of the Association must, as soon as practicable after being appointed as secretary, lodge notice with the Association of his or her address.
- 19.2 It is the duty of the secretary to keep minutes of:
- (a) all appointments of office-bearers and members of the committee, and
 - (b) the names of members of the committee present at a committee meeting or a general meeting, and
 - (c) all proceedings at committee meetings and general meetings.
- 19.3 Minutes of proceedings at a meeting must be signed by the chairperson of the meeting or by the chairperson of the next succeeding meeting.

20. Treasurer

It is the duty of the treasurer of the Association to ensure:

- (a) that all money due to the Association is collected and received and that all payments authorised by the Association are made, and
- (b) that correct books and accounts are kept showing the financial affairs of the Association, including full details of all receipts and expenditure connected with the activities of the Association.

21 Casual vacancies

21.1 In the event of a casual vacancy occurring in the membership of the committee, the committee may appoint a member of the Association to fill the vacancy and the member so appointed is to hold office, subject to this Constitution, until the conclusion of the annual general meeting next following the date of the appointment.

21.2 A casual vacancy in the office of a member of the committee occurs if the member:

- (a) dies, or
- (b) ceases to be a member of the Association, or
- (c) becomes an insolvent under administration within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth, or
- (d) resigns office by notice in writing given to the secretary, or
- (e) is removed from office under clause 22, or
- (f) becomes a mentally incapacitated person, or
- (g) is absent without the consent of the committee from 3 consecutive meetings of the committee, or
- (h) is convicted of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty for which the maximum penalty on conviction is imprisonment for not less than 3 months, or
- (i) is prohibited from being a director of a company under Part 2D.6 (Disqualification from managing corporations) of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

22. Removal of committee members

22.1 The Association in general meeting may by resolution remove any member of the committee from the office of member before the expiration of the member's term of office and may by resolution appoint another person to hold office until the expiration of the term of office of the member so removed.

22.2 If a member of the committee to whom a proposed resolution referred to in subclause 22.1 relates makes representations in writing to the secretary or president (not exceeding a reasonable length) and requests that the representations be notified to the members of the Association, the secretary or the president may send a copy of the representations to each member of the association or, if the representations are not so sent, the member is entitled to require that the representations be read out at the meeting at which the resolution is considered.

23. Committee meetings and quorum

- 23.1 The committee must meet at least 4 times in each period of 12 months at such place and time as the committee may determine.
- 23.2 Additional meetings of the committee may be convened by the president or by any member of the committee.
- 23.3 Oral or written notice of a meeting of the committee must be given by the secretary to each member of the committee at least 48 hours (or such other period as may be unanimously agreed on by the members of the committee) before the time appointed for the holding of the meeting.
- 23.4 Notice of a meeting given under subclause 23.3 must specify the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting and no business other than that business is to be transacted at the meeting, except business which the committee members present at the meeting unanimously agree to treat as urgent business.
- 23.5 Any 3 members of the committee constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a meeting of the committee.
- 23.6 No business is to be transacted by the committee unless a quorum is present and if, within half an hour of the time appointed for the meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting is to stand adjourned to the same place and at the same hour of the same day in the following week.
- 23.7 If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting is to be dissolved.
- 23.8 At a meeting of the committee:
 - (a) the president or, in the president's absence, the vice-president is to preside, or
 - (b) if the president and the vice-president are absent or unwilling to act, such one of the remaining members of the committee as may be chosen by the members present at the meeting is to preside.

24. Delegation by committee to sub-committee

- 24.1 The committee may, by instrument in writing, delegate to one or more sub-committees (consisting of such member or members of the Association as the committee thinks fit) the exercise of such of the functions of the committee as are specified in the instrument, other than:
 - (a) this power of delegation, and
 - (b) a function which is a duty imposed on the committee by the Act or by any other law.
- 24.2 A function the exercise of which has been delegated to a sub-committee under this clause may, while the delegation remains unrevoked, be exercised from time to time by the sub-committee in accordance with the terms of the delegation.

- 24.3 A delegation under this clause may be made subject to such conditions or limitations as to the exercise of any function, or as to time or circumstances, as may be specified in the instrument of delegation.
- 24.4 Despite any delegation under this clause, the committee may continue to exercise any function delegated.
- 24.5 Any act or thing done or suffered by a sub-committee acting in the exercise of a delegation under this clause has the same force and effect as it would have if it had been done or suffered by the committee.
- 24.6 The committee may, by instrument in writing, revoke wholly or in part any delegation under this clause.
- 24.7 A sub-committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper.

25 Voting and decisions

- 25.1 Questions arising at a meeting of the committee or of any sub-committee appointed by the committee are to be determined by a majority of the votes of members of the committee or sub-committee present at the meeting.
- 25.2 Each member present at a meeting of the committee or of any sub-committee appointed by the committee (including the person presiding at the meeting) is entitled to one vote but, in the event of an equality of votes on any question, the person presiding may exercise a second or casting vote.
- 25.3 Subject to clause 23.5, the committee may act despite any vacancy on the committee.
- 25.4 Any act or thing done or suffered, or purporting to have been done or suffered, by the committee or by a sub-committee appointed by the committee, is valid and effectual despite any defect that may afterwards be discovered in the appointment or qualification of any member of the committee or sub-committee.

Part 4 - General meetings

26. Annual general meetings-holding of

The Association must hold its annual general meetings:

- (a) within 6 months after the close of the Association's financial year, or
- (b) within such later time as may be allowed by the Director-General or prescribed by the Regulation.

27. Annual general meetings-calling of and business at

- 27.1 The annual general meeting of the Association is, subject to the Act and to clause 26, to be convened on such date and at such place and time as the committee thinks fit.
- 27.2 In addition to any other business which may be transacted at an annual general meeting, the business of an annual general meeting is to include the following:

- (a) to confirm the minutes of the last preceding annual general meeting and of any special general meeting held since that meeting,
- (b) to receive from the committee reports on the activities of the association during the last preceding financial year,
- (c) to elect ordinary committee members,
- (d) to receive and consider any financial statement or report required to be submitted to members under the Act.

27.3 An annual general meeting must be specified as such in the notice convening it.

28 Special general meetings-calling of 28.1 The committee may, whenever it thinks fit, convene a special general meeting of the Association.

28.2 The committee must, on the requisition in writing of at least 5 per cent of the total number of members, convene a special general meeting of the Association.

28.3 A requisition of members for a special general meeting:

- (a) must state the purpose or purposes of the meeting, and
- (b) must be signed by the members making the requisition, and
- (c) must be lodged with the secretary, and
- (d) may consist of several documents in a similar form, each signed by one or more of the members making the requisition.

28.4 If the committee fails to convene a special general meeting to be held within 1 month after that date on which a requisition of members for the meeting is lodged with the secretary, any one or more of the members who made the requisition may convene a special general meeting to be held not later than 3 months after that date.

28.5 A special general meeting convened by a member or members as referred to in subclause 28.4 must be convened as nearly as is practicable in the same manner as general meetings are convened by the committee.

29 Notice

29.1 Except if the nature of the business proposed to be dealt with at a general meeting requires a special resolution of the Association, the secretary must, at least 14 days before the date fixed for the holding of the general meeting, give a notice to each member specifying the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature of the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting.

29.2 If the nature of the business proposed to be dealt with at a general meeting requires a special resolution of the Association, the secretary must, at least 21 days before the date fixed for the holding of the general meeting, cause notice to be given to each member specifying, in addition to the matter required under subclause 29.1, the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution.

29.3 No business other than that specified in the notice convening a general meeting is to be transacted at the meeting except, in the case of an annual general meeting, business which may be transacted under clause 27.2.

29.4 A member desiring to bring any business before a general meeting may give notice in writing of that business to the secretary who must include that business in the next notice calling a general meeting given after receipt of the notice from the member.

30. Quorum for general meetings

30.1 No item of business is to be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members entitled under this Constitution to vote is present during the time the meeting is considering that item.

30.2 Twenty members present (being members entitled under this Constitution to vote at a general meeting) constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a general meeting.

30.3 If within half an hour after the appointed time for the commencement of a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting:

(a) if convened on the requisition of members, is to be dissolved, and

(b) in any other case, is to stand adjourned to the same day in the following week at the same time and (unless another place is specified at the time of the adjournment by the person presiding at the meeting or communicated by written notice to members given before the day to which the meeting is adjourned) at the same place.

30.4 If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the members present (being at least 5) are to constitute a quorum.

31. Presiding member

31.1 The president or, in the president's absence, the vice-president, is to preside as chairperson at each general meeting of the Association.

31.2 If the president and the vice-president are absent or unwilling to act, the members present must elect one of their number to preside as chairperson at the meeting.

32. Adjournment

32.1 The chairperson of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the majority of members present at the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place, but no business is to be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.

32.2 If a general meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, the secretary must give written or oral notice of the adjourned meeting to each member of the Association stating the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.

32.3 Except as provided in subclauses 32.1 and 32.2, notice of an adjournment of a general meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting is not required to be given.

33. Making of decisions

33.1 A question arising at a general meeting of the Association is to be determined by either:

- (a) a show of hands, or
- (b) if on the motion of the chairperson or if 5 or more members present at the meeting decide that the question should be determined by a written ballot-a written ballot.

33.2 If the question is to be determined by a show of hands, a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried or carried unanimously or carried by a particular majority or lost, or an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Association, is evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution.

33.3 If the question is to be determined by a written ballot, the ballot is to be conducted in accordance with the directions of the chairperson.

34. Special resolutions

A special resolution may only be passed by the Association in accordance with section 39 of the Act.

35. Voting

35.1 On any question arising at a general meeting of the Association a member has one vote only.

35.2 If more than one parent or legal guardian of a child/children attending the service are recorded as a member of the Association, the voting rights of the parent and legal guardian members may not be exercised by them individually, but may only be exercised:

- (a) by proxy (who may be one of them); or
- (b) by the parent or legal guardian whose name appears first in the register of members; or
- (c) by another parent or legal guardian whose name appears on the register, if the parent or legal guardian whose name appears first in the register of members gives their consent.

35.3 In the case of an equality of votes on a question at a general meeting, the chairperson of the meeting is entitled to exercise a second or casting vote.

35.4 A member is not entitled to vote at any general meeting of the Association unless all money due and payable by the member to the Association has been paid.

35.5 A member is not entitled to vote at any general meeting of the Association if the member is under 18 years of age.

36. Proxy votes

36.1 Each member shall be entitled to appoint another member as proxy by notice to the secretary no later than 24 hours before the time of the meeting in respect of which the proxy is appointed.

36.2 The notice appointing the proxy shall be in a form approved by the committee.

37. Postal ballots

37.1 The Association may hold a postal ballot to determine any issue or proposal (other than an appeal under clause 14).

37.2 A postal ballot is to be conducted in accordance with Schedule 3 to the Regulation.

Part 5 - Miscellaneous

38. Insurance

The Association may effect and maintain insurance.

39. Funds-source

39.1 The funds of the Association are to be derived from entrance fees, annual subscriptions, subsidies, grants, donations, attendance fees, fundraising and, subject to any resolution passed by the association in general meeting, such other sources as the committee determines.

39.2 All money received by the Association must be deposited as soon as practicable and without deduction to the credit of the Association's bank or other authorised deposit-taking institution account.

39.3 The Association must, as soon as practicable after receiving any money, issue an appropriate receipt.

40. Funds-management

40.1 The assets and income of the Association shall be applied solely in furtherance of the Association's Objects in such manner as the committee determines, and no portion shall be distributed directly or indirectly to the members of the Association except as bona fide compensation for services rendered or expenses incurred on behalf of the Association..

40.2 The committee may determine the manner in which and persons by whom payments, cheques, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable instruments, and receipts for money paid to the Association, may be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed, executed or otherwise transacted. .

40.3 In the event of the Association being dissolved, the amount that remains after dissolution and the satisfaction of all debts and liabilities of the Association shall be transferred to another organisation with similar purposes which is not carried on for profit or gain of its individual members.

40.4 In the event of the Association being dissolved, prior to the dissolution a Special General Meeting will be called to decide upon the method of disbursement of any remaining funds under clause 40.3, and to select the organisation or organisations to which the funds will be transferred.

41. Change of name, objects and constitution

An application to the Director-General for registration of a change in the Association's name, objects or Constitution in accordance with section 10 of the Act is to be made by the public officer or a committee member.

42. Custody of books etc

Except as otherwise provided by this Constitution, the public officer must keep in his or her custody or under his or her control all records, books and other documents relating to the Association.

43. Inspection of books etc

43.1 The following documents must be open to inspection, free of charge, by a member of the Association at any reasonable hour:

- (a) records, books and other financial documents of the Association,
- (b) this Constitution,
- (c) minutes of all general meetings of the Association',
- (d) subject to clause 43.2, minutes of all committee meetings of the Association.

43.2 The committee may, by resolution, redact from the minutes of a committee meeting made available for inspection under clause 43.1(d) any document or information recorded in the minute or attached to, if the document or information is of such a nature that:
